Successful Candidate Declares That People Who Live in Glass Houses Should Not Throw Stones—Gave a Dollar to Each of Several Men Who Wanted a Little Lunch After Casting Their Ballots.

(By Associated Press.)
BALTIMORE, MD., Nov. 10.—Congressman-elect William H. Jackson, of the First District, in an interview today at Salisbury, frankly discussed the use of money at elections.
Replying to charges that he had spent money lavishly to secure his election Mr. Jackson admitted that money had been spent for votes, but denied that he personally put out any money except "a dollar to each of several men, who came to his office after and not before voting, and who wanted a little lunch."

Voters Want the Boodle.
Mr. Jackson declared that it was useless to pretend that elections could be carried on the Eastern Shore without the expenditure of money. "They are out for the boodle," he declared, (meaning the voters), "and they must get it or they won't vote."

"People living in glass houses should not throw stones. The Democrats got beat at their own game. I am one of those fellows, who fight to the last ditch, but I don't squeal if I get licked."

Died Not Spend His All.
"The Democrats are squealing. My opponent, Mr. Smith, (the present incumbent), spent all he could get. He ought to have known better than to go against me that way. I did not spend all I had."

"No man without money need run for Congress in the First District of Maryland and a poor man has no chance against a rich man."
He granted that it was a disgraceful condition of affairs, but insisted that he could not help it.

Noted Railroad Magnate Explains Why There Is Trouble in Moving Freight Satisfactorily.

WOULD DREDGE THE MISSISSIPPI

Problem That Confronts Country Is Not Shortage of Cars But Shortage of Railroads He Says—Demands Reciprocity With Canada—Would Rather Have Free Trade.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, ILLS., Nov. 10.—James J. Hill the guest of honor at the banquet of the Merchants' Club tonight said:
"Today the entire country is suffering from want of transportation facilities to move its business without unreasonable delay. The prevailing idea with the public is that the railroads are short of cars while the facts are that the shortage is in tracks and terminals to provide a greater opportunity for the movement of cars."

Favors River Navigation.
The speaker declared that the country today faced a transportation problem which only time, patience and the expenditure of enormous sums of money will remedy. He asserted that there is a crying need now for the construction of a fifteen foot channel between St. Louis and New Orleans, and he said, that the necessity for this would increase with time.

There was to be more important general work for the government to perform, he said, than to construct a channel capable of carrying vessels of fifteen feet draft.

Belittles Panama Ditch.
Mr. Hill recited figures showing that the trade with the people whom the United States will be able to reach by the construction of the Panama canal amounts to only about $54,500,000, while our trade with Canada is more than $200,000,000 a year. He asserted that the conservation and increase of this trade is of great importance than anything that will accrue to the United States, because of the construction of the canal.

Concerning reciprocity with Canada, Mr. Hill said:

Time Ripe for Reciprocity.
"The plea for more liberal trade relations is negative only by unreasonable individual selfishness. The time is opportune for a practical movement toward better trade relations with Canada. The consummation most to be wished is the wiping out of custom houses along the northern frontier and the establishment there of absolute free trade. If the time is not ripe for that, the least that it demands is ample reciprocity."

TOPEKA, KANS., Nov. 10.—Thousands of acres of most valuable farmland in Kansas, together with a large amount of land located in towns and cities of the State is awarded to the Missouri Kansas and Texas railway by a decision handed down today by the Kansas Supreme Court.
In July, 1850, Congress granted to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, Southern branch, now the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway Company, a right of way of 200 feet wide to the railway to the South line of the State, a distance of about 150 miles.
Afterward patents were issued to private persons for land through which the railroad runs without excepting the right of way. The persons holding these patents have treated the right of way as being only 100 feet wide. In some cases, valuable improvements have been made on 50 feet on each of the railway tracks.

Bates, Mrs. Louis Greely, Mrs. Charles Henrotin and Mrs. Wilbur Jackson were the speakers, who told the alderman in plain terms that the fate of thousands of innocent girls was bound up in the regulation of the downtown hotels and that they proposed to see safe-guards thrown about them.

Miss Lucy Page Gaston sprung the sensation of the session in a discussion of the conditions surrounding underworld shop girls.

"Chief of Police Collins at our request recently detailed two detectives to watch a certain downtown store," said Miss Gaston.
"Their report to him showed that in the course of a week they had traced sixty girls from that one place to the various downtown hotels. They were all accompanied by men. This thing has grown to serious proportions and is scarifying the lives of hundreds of hard pressed girls. These hotels ought to be utterly wiped out."

SLIGHT EARTHQUAKE SHOCK FELT

Inhabitants Fear Another Eruption Similar to the One That Occurred Last April—Professor Matteucci Is Not Alarmed.

(By Associated Press.)
NAPLES, ITALY, Nov. 10.—At noon today Mount Vesuvius and the surrounding villages were shaken up by an earthquake, which was accompanied by detonations and followed by a considerable fall of ashes, especially over Ottajano, which was destroyed during the eruption of last April and is now in course of reconstruction.

The phenomenon caused great alarm. Investigations showed that part of the crater of the volcano had fallen in.
There were three slight shocks in the Vibeyan region and a further discharge of ashes, which was blown in the direction of Pompeii and Ottajano.

Prof. Matteucci, director of the Royal Observatory on Mount Vesuvius, said:
"I do not believe this is a new eruption as all the phenomena preceding such an event are lacking. I think the rain of ashes was caused by the slipping down of the superior lip of the crater and that the earth tremblings were due to water from the heavy rains recently having reached the fire zone inside the volcano producing an internal explosion."

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 10.—The end of the foot ball game between Bucknell and the Virginia Polytechnic Institute here today was marked by an attempt to mob Umpire Suter by a crowd of men and boys. The police with drawn revolvers quieted the mob of disgruntled rooters.

Bucknell won the game 10 to 0. Five minutes before play ended a V. P. I. back got through for an eighty yard run and a touchdown. Before he had come through the line, Suter blew his whistle for a foul, V. P. I. having held in the line. The crowd thought this was a bad decision. Later V. P. I. quit the field and then the mob jumped the fence and went after Suter.

For awhile things looked dark for the former Princeton player. He kept his face to the crowd and slowly retreated. Seeing that he would soon be hemmed in, the players on both teams rushed to his assistance.

Some one hit Suter over the head with a cane attached to which a V. P. I. flag. This was a signal for an onslaught and then the police rushed in. They rushed the crowd back with their clubs in front of them. Many of the policemen drew their revolvers. In a short time quiet had been restored.
